From the Rabbi's Desk

Many years ago, the late Dr. Pinhas Peli wrote a fascinating piece in the Jerusalem Post on the subject of Judaism and dogs. Historically, Jews like the Arabs, were not fond of dogs for various reasons, for it was felt that they were a particularly unclean animal.

In fact, we can find both favorable and unfavorable references in ancient and modern Jewish writings. The Torah (Exodus 11:6-7) informs us that no dog barked when the Israelites left Egypt and, as a reward (Exodus 22:30), treifah or non-kosher meat was to be cast to them for keeping silent at that time.

There is a wonderful story in the Jerusalem Talmud (Terumot 8, 3) of a certain butcher who used to sell treifah meat passing it off as kosher. Once when inebriated he fell off the roof of his house and died. When dogs gathered to lick his blood, Rabbi Hanina remarked that they should not be driven away as they were only reclaiming what the butcher had stolen from them. The non-kosher meat belonged to them!

Negative remarks include the Prophet Isaiah (56:11), who calls dogs greedy, and the Talmud (Pesachim 113b) "... a dog in the house drives away kindness and fear of the Lord because it scares away the meek and the beggars," and the Midrash (Exodus, Rabbah 42) "...the dog is the boldest and most insolent of animals."

Obviously, an argument can be made for both points of view, and I have only mentioned a few of numerous statements on the subject.

In conclusion, it is worth noting that in the Talmud dogs serve as a seismograph to report on the state of the world. Thus (Baba Kamma 60a) informs us that "when the dogs cry it is a sign that the angel of death is in town, and when they laugh it is a sign that Elijah, the messenger of good tidings, is in town."

I pray that the laughing dogs of our congregation may be harbingers of the redemption and the days of the Messiah for whom we wait.

From the Chairman

Welcome to "Enriching Our Jewish Lives: Prayer and Practice." I hope all of you will take advantage of the many incredible opportunities that will be offered this year to translate the spark within us to actions and deeds.

The year will begin with Rabbi David Wolpe speaking at our Shabbaton, January 20-21 (see below). I have had the opportunity to hear him speak on a number of occasions and have felt each time that I have learned something new about Judaism and myself. I wish the same for all of you. February through March, classes called "Cracking the Code" will be offered to help us access and better understand our Shabbat morning prayer service. These will be followed by four-part seminars addressing our topic from a number of perspectives. The summer will offer a film series and visits to sites around the city important to certain rituals, e.g., a visit to a mikvah. The fall will focus the Congregation on Shabbat and Holiday celebrations

The year will be punctuated by Shabbat dinners beginning with our first one scheduled for February 10 with Peter Geffen. Complementing all that is learned in traditional settings will be a series of exhibitions in our new art gallery, opening with Noah Greenberg's ritualistic art objects. This should be a most interesting year that will help us all to better understand the uniquely Jewish rhythms of our lives. I look forward to sharing it with all of you.

Amy A.B. Bressman
Chairman

Park Avenue Synagogue Happenings

Shabbaton 2006 kicks off a year-long focus on our shared heritage of prayer and practice.

We will have the opportunity to examine the richness of the legacy we have inherited. We will also explore ways to turn what has been passed down to us into what is relevant to our lives today. The theme this year enables us to delve into our traditions as we search for ways to heighten our experiences as Jews and to define what we want to transmit to future generations.

Be Part of Theme 2006 Study and Enrichment

After exploring and expressing our Jewish selves in 2005, we will now delve deeply into our shared heritage of prayer and practice. As a community, we are together on the path of Jewish life – from bris and baby namings, to bar and bat mitzvah to weddings, funerals and everything in between, from daily prayer to each Shabbat to each new Jewish month and the holidays they bring. All members deserve the opportunity to gain new insights and to increase their familiarity with the history and innovations of our traditions. The theme for 2006, “Enriching our Jewish Lives: Prayer and Practice,” gives us that opportunity. We hope you will partake of the many programs and activities that will help you explore this theme. Among them are:

Cracking the Code: Prayer Book Hebrew and Meaning Made Easy

This course will help you to open the prayer book - literally and with an eye toward depth and meaning. To help you make the most of your time, each course will be taught in eight one-hour sessions, by members of the Clergy and Education Staff. Choose a time that is convenient for you: Mondays, 1/23, 30; 2/6, 13, 27; 3/6, 13, 20, 9:15 am–10:15 am or 7:30 pm–8:30 pm; Tuesdays, 1/24, 31; 2/7, 14, 21, 28; 3/7, 14, 9:15 am – 10:15 am; Wednesdays, 1/25; 2/1, 8, 15, 22; 3/1, 8, 13, 8:00 am – 9:00 am, 12:15 pm – 1:15 pm (Lunch ‘n’ Learn at a midtown location*) or 7:30 pm – 8:30 pm; Thursdays, 1/26; 2/2, 9, 16, 23; 3/2, 9, 16, 12:00 noon – 1:00 pm or 7:30 pm–8:30 pm.

Transmitting Our Jewish Heritage Through Art: P.A.S. Gallery Re-Opens!

The Park Avenue Synagogue has been privileged to receive numerous works of art from devoted congregants throughout the years that are displayed in the Gallery on the second floor and throughout the Synagogue. These works of art offer diverse representations of Jewish history and heritage as filtered through the imaginations of distinguished artists from the United States, Israel, and around the world.

The art around us at Park Avenue Synagogue serves to remind us that Jewish material culture is a significant means of transmitting our Jewish heritage. These works of artistic creativity and Jewish ritual practice enhance the context of our congregation’s spiritual, educational, and social action activities. We hope that these works of art will be a source of inspiration and enjoyment as our community works together to sustain Jewish faith, values, and continuity.

As part of our theme 2006, “Enriching our Jewish Lives: Prayer and Practice,” we will host several shows of local and international contemporary Jewish artists. Until January 10, don’t miss “The Jewish Lens” exhibit, photographs by P.A.S. congregants taken with the guidance of photographer Zion Ozeri, course instructor this past November.

We are proud to announce that our first feature show will showcase Noah Greenberg from Safed, Israel. Noah specializes in Judaic ritual art sculpted and carved out of wood. His well-known Tree of Life Shtender will be on display in our gallery during the months of January and February. This shtender, or lectern, has been called the most original, complex and comprehensive Judaic artwork ever created. It is a unique combination of an elegant piece of furniture, an intricate sculptural work of art, and a complete series of all of the daily, weekly and yearly ritual objects of Jewish practice.

Noah Greenberg will be a guest artist-in-residence for several days in February. He will conduct workshops with our students as well as adults and will join us for our annual Tu B'Shevat seder and celebration on February 12. Be sure to watch the Bulletin and web site for further information about his upcoming visit. In the meantime, the Gallery Committee at P.A.S. invites you to visit the Gallery to see this remarkable example of contemporary Judaica.

An Evening of J.T.S. Home Studies

Arms' Programs & Events

WEG: Study and Socialize on Rosh Hodesh

Moonbeams, a monthly Rosh Hodesh study/social experience, invites women of all ages in the congregation to participate in an adventure of learning and friendship on Tuesdays, January 3 and 31, 7:30 – 9:00 pm. For more information, consult the Synagogue web site or call Joann Rosoff, (212) 348-4531, or Joan Scheffler, (212) 734-0444.

Men's Club: Investment Forum

Once again, on Wednesday January 11 at 7:15 pm, Maury Harris and friends from the New York investment community will provide us with their insights regarding the state of the current and future economy. They will also discuss investments and strategies. You won't want to miss hearing from these investment experts. This program is free and open to all.

Young Couples Group: Israeli Soldiers Talk About Life on the Front Lines

It is rare to identify courage and it is rarer still to meet those who embody it. On Wednesday, January 11 at 7:30 pm we will be fortunate to have the opportunity to listen to several Israeli soldiers share their personal experiences and recount what it is like to be an integral protector of the most priceless parcel of land in the world to Jews. They are part of the Israeli Defense Force (IDF) also known as Tzahal, the abbreviation for Tzva Hagana Leyisrael, which is the official name of the Israeli Army. In what is sure to be a unique and insightful evening, these brave soldiers will provide a mirror into day-to-day life on the front lines. Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres will be served. Please R.S.V.P. to jansgilman@yahoo.com to get the location as soon as possible; this extraordinary event is sure to fill up rapidly.

Sisterhood: Yiddish Club

Come to schmooze, read a short story and some poems on Tuesday, January 17 at 1:00 pm in the Rothschild Library. Coffee and cake will be served.

WEG: A New Women's Ritual – Film and Discussion

WEG invites all P.A.S. members to an evening with Rabbi Rose on Monday, January 23 at 7:30 pm, when she will speak on a new ritual to mark the passages in women's lives and show the film Timbrels and Torahs: A Celebration of Wisdom. Come for refreshments at 7:30 pm and for the program at 8:00 pm. ## January B'not Mitzvah

Alexandra
Frances
Mitchell
January 7, 2006

A student at The Congregational School since the Gan Class, Alexandra Mitchell is a seventh grader at The Hewitt School. Her favorite subjects in school are English, history, Spanish and handbells. Alexandra is a Flying Dolphins swim team member and swims competitively.

Summers are spent at Camp Arcadia in Casco, Maine, where Alexandra especially enjoys spending time with friends, windsurfing, canoeing, and campcraft.

Alexandra will read from Parsha Vayigash, which examines the Jewish people's unity in regard to spiritual and secular life, Judah's responsibility for Benjamin, and Joseph's behavior toward his brothers in Egypt during the famine. She thanks the clergy, her teachers and her family for their support in preparation for her special day and looks forward to continuing her Jewish studies at The Rabbi Judah Nadich High School in the Fall.

Samara Flug
January 28, 2006

Samara sets a joyful example to her family, sisters and friends with her commitment to Park Avenue Synagogue. Following her baby naming in 1993, Samara attended the Early Childhood Center and The Congregational School, and looks forward to continuing to The Rabbi Judah Nadich High School with the many teachers and great friends she has met throughout the years.

Congregational School

by Ron Koas, Education Director

Shabbat B'yachad, Lomdim B'yachad and Nitzanim

This month I would like to tell you about three programs that we have in our school:

Shabbat B'yachad (Shabbat Together) Programs

Shabbat provides a wonderful opportunity for families to learn and spend time together at the Synagogue. Five or six times during the year, parents of Gimel, Daled, Hay, Vav and MATAN sheni students are required to join their children for a two-hour program on Shabbat morning, 10:00 am-12:00 noon. These special Shabbat B'yachad Programs take the place of regular Shabbat classes and Junior Congregation. Each Shabbat B'yachad involves a family learning service led by a member of the Clergy, as well as educational programming for both parents and children. Some of these programs involve Beit Midrash-style learning (traditional study from Jewish sources), some will include cultural performances, others will feature our annual events such as the Zimriyah (song festival) and the P.A.S. Shabbaton. Please refer to the school calendar, our web site, and flyers sent home for specific dates and further information.

In October we had Shabbat B'yachad Havdallah led by Cantor Abramson, Sarah Gribetz and me. It was an amazing service: We unrolled the Torah, and all the kids felt very excited seeing the real Torah all around them. Some parents cried, and I had some tears as well. So if you weren't there, next time you should come.

Lomdim B'yachad (Learning Together) Programs

Lomdim B'yachad is a series of adult-education programs for parents of students in Gan, Alef and Bet. These programs are designed to help our parents take time in their busy schedules to do some Jewish learning of their own, and to become better informed about what their children are learning at P.A.S. These sessions take place when their children are in class and are co-led by Sarah Gribetz, director of Adult & Family Education, and me. This year we started the series talking about "I am Jewish." We used our 2nd Annual Great Synagogue Read-in book of the same title, co-edited by Judea Pearl. Parents spoke about their Jewish journey and why they send their kids to our school. It was very interesting.

Nitzanim

Nitzanim is the synagogue's Shabbat morning service for children in kindergarten through 2nd grade. It takes place every Saturday morning, 11:00 am – 12:00 noon that The Congregational School is in session, and is expertly and enthusiastically led by Beth Schlossberg, a member of the Congregational School and Family Education faculties. Students in Gan, Alef and Bet are required to attend three Nitzanim services together with their parents during the school year. The required dates for attending Nitzanim have been assigned according to the first initial of students' last names. This service is a great way for our younger students to transition into our three-day-a-week program (which includes Shabbat attendance) that begins in the Gimel grade.

Nitzanim is so much fun, I hope you will come with your kids as much as you can.

Rabbi Judah Nadich High School and Youth Programs

by Lisa Samick

The Junior/Senior Seminar

Four years ago, we developed a program designed to attract our 11th and 12th graders back to the High School. We invited several incredible speakers to join us for the first incarnation of the program – the Legal Advisor to the Permanent Mission of the U.N., the National Director of the A.J.C., and a Professor of Middle Eastern Studies – to help us contextualize the Peace Process and the state of affairs in Israel. It was an incredible semester, and I believe that all five of the students who signed on to it were engaged and enriched. Fast forward to Wednesday nights this year: We regularly have 18-20 students in the Board Room discussing current events and how best to interpret and navigate the news from Israel. They debate, discuss, argue and learn together, and the teachers (actually, more like facilitators) study with them and learn from them. It has been an amazing progression and growth – moving from a (let's be honest) desperate attempt to recapture the interest of these students in Jewish education to a seminar that 10th graders are eager to get into. If you know someone who is in 11th or 12th grade and is not yet involved with our seminar program, please have him or her contact the High School office at extension 141.

YOUR VOTE COUNTS

Over the next two months, we will have a unique opportunity to participate in the workings of the 35th World Zionist Congress. At this gathering, decisions are made that impact the policies of the Jewish Agency and the allocation of its $300 million budget. Be a part of this process: Support religious pluralism in Israel and help secure funding for the Masorti Movement (as Conservative Judaism is known in Israel). Just follow these three easy steps:

1. Join MERCAZ USA, the Zionist Organization of the Conservative Movement, which represents Conservative Judaism within the World Zionist Organization, the Jewish Agency for Israel, the American Zionist Movement and the Jewish National Fund.
2. Register to vote in the Zionist Congress elections. Registration continues into early 2006, but please—do it now!!
3. Mark your ballot MERCAZ USA when your ballot arrives in the mail.

Voting in the 35th World Zionist Congress election is a two-stage process: voter registration and balloting. Any American 18 years or older can register to vote, either by mail or on-line. On-line registration ends February 15, 2006 while mail-in registration ends January 15, 2006. Ballots will be mailed to registrants and voting continues through February 2006. You can find out all you need to know, join MERCAZ and register to vote by going to www.mercazusa.org, writing to MERCAZ USA at 155 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10010, or calling (212) 533-800, ext. 2016.

Kol Nidre Appeal 2005/5766

On behalf of the Officers and Board of Trustees, I would like to thank all those who have given to our annual Kol Nidre Appeal through November 21, 2005. Your generous donations help Park Avenue Synagogue maintain the level of our dynamic programming and community social action efforts, such as the Food Pantry.

The Kol Nidre Appeal is one of the most important synagogue-wide fundraising campaigns that we conduct each year, and the funds that are raised help the annual Synagogue operating budget in countless ways. We are under new financial pressure because:

- Membership dues account for only 36% of the operating budget;
- Our security and insurance costs have more than tripled in recent years;
- Maintaining our inspiring sanctuary and landmark facility, parts of which date back to 1927, requires constant attention and improvement.

More than ever we need your generous contributions. Again, our heartfelt thanks to those who have given. If you have not yet had the opportunity to make a Kol Nidre pledge, we look forward to hearing from you.

B'shalom,

Marty Halbfinger

Bikur Cholim Caring Committee

In Loving Memory of Dr. Albert and Phyllis L. Cornell

Do you know someone ill, elderly, or homebound who would benefit from compassionate personal attention?

The P.A.S. Bikur Cholim Caring Committee reaches out to those in need through telephone calls, visits, and holiday packages. The Caring Committee is comprised of trained volunteers who are committed to providing hands-on support and companionship to these valued members of our congregation. All interactions are confidential.

To arrange for this mitzvah, please call Rabbi Lincoln's office at (212) 369-2600, ext. 120.
